A note from Pastor Karla...

Today I took a plunge into the deep end of the swimming pool. I didn't think I would do it, I stood on the edge staring long and hard at the potentially cold water with little to no interest in getting wet. I was worried about my make-up running and having to do my hair again. I was worried I would be cold. But then I thought, "how many more years will my son want me to swim with him" so I put logic to the side and jumped...feet first. Yes, it was cold and yes, my makeup did run, but I also had a lot of fun splashing and playing with an 8 year old boy and, most importantly, maybe for the first time in a long time, I entered into my life instead of just being a spectator of it.

Social media has taught us all how to be spectators of life. Watching the lives of others has become a national past time. And worse, those of us who document our lives for all to see, at times forget to actually live the life we are capturing by camera. This results in disillusionment and disappointment. A lot of us feel empty.

Paul though has a solution to that emptiness. In his letter to the Romans (paraphrased in The Message Bible), he says, "Take your everyday, ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering. Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for him. Don't become so well-adjusted to your culture

NEW Covid-19 Protocols and Return to Campus Update

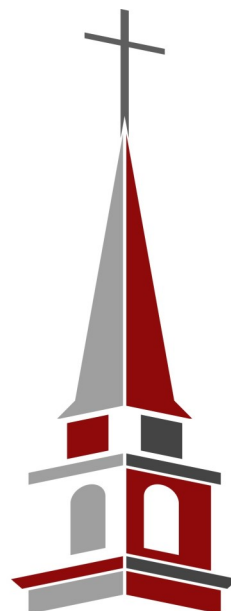

Basketball great, Michael Jordan, was once quoted as saying, "Obstacles don't have to stop you. If you run into a wall, don't turn around and give up. Figure out how to climb it, go through it, or work around it." We are pleased to announce that is exactly what we have done this past year! And now, we are equally pleased to announce it is all coming to an end.

Session Highlights - May 26, 2021

Session priorities continue to focus on the restructuring of our ministries, Session committees, and the ways in which they relate. The attendees spent some time with the Session Restructuring Working Group's worksheet which will help guide the staff/Session retreat on June 5. And the Session also endorsed Rev. Alex Wirth's proposal to extend the restructuring process to the Board of Deacons.

Pastor Karla briefed the attendees on the continuing reduction of in-person meeting restrictions on campus, and plans for full reopening in September.

The Session approved the deletion of 81 inactive members as proposed by the Membership Review Committee, and reviewed and affirmed the method with which personnel issues are processed.

Online Ministry Committee Update

The newly formed Online Ministry Committee wants to hear from you! We have created a survey to gain insight and information about how we can best remain connected to all of you in the most effective and convenient way(s) possible. You should have received the survey via email. If you did not, please email communications@pointlomachurch.org and we will send you the link.

Please take just a few minutes to complete our survey and share your opinions. The survey will be available until Wednesday, June 16. In addition to surveying our church community, we are also listening to feedback through many conversations and seeking advice from various industry experts to determine the approach that would best serve the PLCPC community and beyond.

The committee, which includes Chris Capen, Arts & Worship chair; Kristin Stephany, Adult Ministry chair; Dave Baker, Audio Video volunteer; Evan Gratz, Director of Community Life and Melissa Mullins, Director of Online Ministry will present their findings in the form of a recommended Online Ministry strategy to the Session at their June 23 meeting.

Debrief the Sermon Meets Thru June

The Debrief the Sermon team is meeting online after the 9:30 am Sunday service with anyone who wants to discuss the morning sermon during the four-week sermon series "The Divine Dance." Please feel free to join us any remaining week in June! These will be challenging sermons to discuss at a personal level with a safe and authentic group of interested learners seeking to apply the message of the morning! Look for the zoom link in the Live Chat at the end of the postlude! Questions? Contact Lynn Ziegenfuss at LynnZiggy@gmail.com that you fit into it without even thinking. Instead, fix your attention on God. You'll be changed from the inside out."

So instead of being a spectator of your life this summer, why not instead present it to God as an offering? Jump in the deep end of the pool, dance until late in the night, catch fireflies in the open fields, gaze at the moon. If you give your life to God, instead of to the social media platforms, I can guarantee God will give you back much more than what you expect or even imagine.

Happy swimming, my friends, happy swimming!
Pastor Karla

Staff Update

After nearly seven years of faithful and dedicated service to our Children's Ministry, Karen Connor, has decided to resign her position to allow for more time with her family. Karen's consistent enthusiasm, creative ideas and willingness to re:imagine so many events and activities will be greatly missed by the PLCPC community.

Karen briefly served as the Children's Ministry Assistant before becoming the Director of Children's Ministry in September of 2014. During her tenure she has grown our Children's ministry by leaps and bounds. Our Vacation Bible School program is one of the most sought-after summer day camps in the community. Additionally, events like Red Brick Christmas, EasterFest, Kids Café Worship and Brick Journey have impacted so many families, Karen's legacy will be felt for years to come.

Join us in wishing Karen well as we thank her for maintaining a consistent and loving presence for families and children in our community. She will be greatly missed. Karen's last day with us will be July 8. We are planning a dessert reception to recognize Karen on Friday, July 2 at 5 pm at the conclusion of VBS on the turf. All are invited to attend! We also encourage you to reach out to her directly with cards and well-wishes.

Nicole Hage, Director | preschool@pointlomachurch.org 619-223-3327 | www.redbrickpreschool.org

Preschool is coming to an end for this school year. Our last day of school is June 11. We had a wonderful year despite the global pandemic. I want to thank all the teaching staff for their amazing work and dedication to our preschool. We are gearing up for a fun VBS at the end of June as part of 8 weeks of summer camps for preschool aged children. We are looking forward to another great school year starting September 7. Enrollment for the Fall is well underway, and we only have a few openings. We are always looking to add a few additional substitute teachers for the fall too. If you would like any information on our Preschool, please call Nicole at 619-223-3327 or email preschool@pointlomachurch.org.

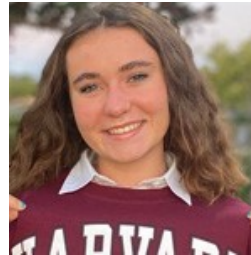

Congratulations!

We are so proud of the youth in our community. We offer congratulations and many prayers to the following Class of 2021 graduates as they begin a new journey on their paths to the future. If we missed your graduate, please let us know so that we can celebrate them as well! (communications@pointlomachurch.org)

And.... That's a Wrap!

The Children's Art and Drama Thursday afternoon program concluded on May 27. Highlights of this session include the collage, clay and rock painting projects, the Mother's Day Virtual Choir with soloists and the Easter Play: "The Chicken, the Bunny and the Egg." We are looking forward to launching a new Art and Drama summer camp in August and resuming the children's music and drama program in September.

Heroes Among Us

PLCPC member, Captain Tom Johnson was honored last month by the city of Coronado as a "Hometown Hero." Captain Johnson is one of 15 Coronado residents currently recognized with a photo banner on Coronado's Avenue of Heroes (along Third and Fourth streets in Coronado). This program, a collaboration with the City of Coronado, VFW Post 2422, the Avenue of Heroes Neighborhood Association, the Hometown Banner Committee and the Coronado Historical Association, recognizes current (or former) Coronado residents who have served our country honorably through military service.

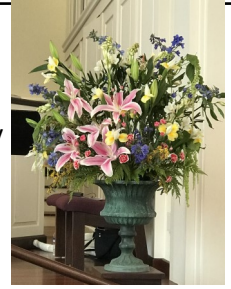

During his service, Captain Johnson was recognized as the Grey Shepherd, signifying the chaplain on active duty the longest.

The New Covenant Choir is celebrating the end of their Covid-zoom season with a choir party on June 17 on the turf area. The choir recorded and produced eight virtual choirs and hundreds of audio recordings of worship music. This season they learned and recorded five Easter choral selections and three different choral benedictions that are played at the conclusion of the online service. All of this has been accomplished via zoom and virtually.

Say a special "Thank You" to a choir member for their amazing dedication, perseverance and flexibility. They have done an incredible job this year learning new technology, recording, practicing and singing all by themselves. We can't wait to get back together and sing as a choir in the fall. We are always excited to welcome new members! If you would like to join us or check us out, please contact Alicia at alicia@pointlomachurch.org.

Effective June 15, 2021, we are lifting the mask and social distancing requirement on the church campus for those who are fully vaccinated.

In addition to masks being optional for the fully vaccinated, participants in all adult groups will no longer have to undergo check-in and check-out procedures. While this is a bright light at the end of a dark tunnel for many, please remember to remain sensitive to those in our community who are unable to receive the vaccine due to age or underlying health conditions.

Although the mask requirement is being lifted for the church campus, it remains in effect for the Preschool, as well as all staff, and volunteers (regardless of vaccination status) in certain situations.

Masks are also still required to be worn by participants in our Children and Youth Ministry programs (including adult volunteers). If a youth participant, age 12 and up, is fully vaccinated, he or she must present proof of full vaccination prior to being permitted to be mask-free.

Return to full in-person worship is expected to occur on Sunday, September 12 with new worship times.

I encourage you to fill out our newest survey by June 16 to help us discern what those times will be: pointlomachurch.org/our-blog/online-ministry-survey/

This full return in the fall enables our staff to take vacation this summer and also to install air-conditioning in our Chapel for a more ventilated (and less hot) space. Until that point, the Café Service will remain on the outdoor turf at 9 am and our Sanctuary service will continue at 10:30 am with corresponding kids' programs. The online service option will also remain at 9:30 am and 11 am. Thank you all for the work you have done this year to keep everyone in our community safe! We are grateful to be moving one step closer to normalcy and equally grateful for who we have become and are still becoming through this unusual year.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call the church office.

Supporting the Endowment Through Estate Planning

Last month, in announcing that “May Is Endowment Month,” the Endowment Committee noted that many members and friends of PLCPC provide gifts to the Endowment in celebration of wonderful events (birthday or anniversary, for example), or in honor of family and friends. We also mentioned that many members of the church have given, or plan to make, bequests to the Endowment.

We welcomed questions. The most common questions will be answered through a series of Spire articles. The first question has to do with bequest-type gifts to the Endowment (discussed this month), and the second related to non-cash gifts will be addressed in the August issue.

The question about bequests is essentially what a person or family needs to do to make a bequest to the Endowment. (“bequests” for this purpose means gifts completed after death, either through a trust or by will.) The Endowment has received many bequests over the years. Indeed, most of the principal of our Endowment is the result of such gifts.

In short, bequests to the Endowment are certainly most welcome and can be made fairly easily, but they do require planning, and clear, legally acceptable directions. This formality is required for bequests because trustees and executors must have unambiguous instructions, because the donor is no longer available to answer questions about intent. Making sure all the technical bequest requirements are met in a trust or will almost always requires professional assistance—for example, estate planning attorneys. The following is not legal or professional advice, but a few of the things that will likely be required for an effective bequest to the Endowment include:

The Endowment of PLCPC must be clearly identified. That is, gifts received by the church generally do not go to the Endowment. Rather, only those identified “for the Endowment” will be permanently restricted for the Endowment funds.

The amount (which may be a percentage of a fund) or description of non-cash gifts (for example, property or stock) for the Endowment must be clearly described in the gift instruction. The technical legal requirements must be met for a specific form of trust or will. For example, the signing and witnessing of a will or trust are important.

Gifts to the Endowment always are placed in the principal of the Endowment, with the income available

(interest and dividends) in perpetuity for the work of the church. Details of the governance of the Endowment are included in the Endowment Bylaws, which are available from the church office.

If you are planning to make a significant deferred gift that will be received in the future, through a trust or will, for the Endowment, consider informing the church or Endowment, of your intention to make the gift. This will be on a confidential basis. It allows the church to plan for the gift, and allows you to specify that the gift will be for the Endowment

As always, the Endowment welcomes questions or comments. Please feel free to contact the chair of the Endowment (Steve Smith, SRS@cwsu.edu), or Jolene Wade in the church office (619-223-1633).

Together for the Family—Update

Together for the Family, one of our Ministry Partners, recently shared some of the amazing ways that your support is helping them to serve Syrian refugees in Lebanon. In addition to providing essentials like food and shelter for so many they are also providing skills training in woodworking and needlework, sports fields and exercise classes for children, and a general sense of hope for these people who have lost everything. This year they were able to increase the number of babies who received care and necessities from 23 last year to 83 this year. This is especially good news when you consider that Lebanon in general has a shortage of milk and medication for babies. Together for the Family is so grateful to God because in addition to providing necessities for babies, this ministry also helps the mothers to cope with life's challenges all while sharing the good news of Jesus!
