Before becoming a mother I dabbled in the art of pottery making and I discovered it is far harder than it looks.

The first session it took me a couple hours just to learn how to center a piece of clay on the wheel. This was followed by many more sessions learning how to use my body to create the cone that becomes the basis for any project. Then even after a solid cone has been created, manipulating the cone into a usable bowl, cup, or vase is another terrifying task that requires a perfect amount of pressure, water, and patience. Early on, my entire body would ache for days after a session. "Throwing a pot," although mesmerizing and relaxing to the outside viewer, requires a great deal of strength from the artist. Which is why, when one of my crooked bowls shattered into two pieces the other day, my husband glued it back together for me. The value of that bowl is no longer found in its use, but in the work put in to make it in the first place. It's not just a bowl.

We aren't just bowls either.

This concept, when I think about pottery in relation to the Master Potter, makes me realize why God spends so much time and energy "gluing" us back together. We are God's creation, brought forth with a great deal of strength, and our usefulness, while important, is really

Session Meeting Highlights—March 23

Two major projects are developing as this Session's legacy: Session restructuring and campus renovation. The Restructuring Transition Team is now collecting data from Session committee chairs in preparation for the June retreat, when the restructure process will begin. And following last month's reactivation of the Renovation Task Force, Elder Pam Werner received Session approval to reactivate the Capital Campaign Committee, which she chairs.

Mission Beyond Chair Bob Lemke reported that proceeds from a recent appeal to the congregation, added to committee funds, has resulted in more than $13,000 donated from PLCPC to the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance fund in support of Ukrainian refugees. The committee is also forming a team to consider the direct assistance of a refugee family at PLCPC.

secondary to the One who poured himself out in our molding. The Resurrection, which we celebrate this month, is a reminder to us that we aren't just bowls anymore and God continues to glue us back together over and over again so we might understand that truth.

May this Easter be a time of great joy in recognizing how much God loves you. And may you see the (sometimes painful) molding of your life in the hands of a Great Artist who just wants to expand you to receive more of Him.

Praise be to God for the lesson of the pottery wheel!

Cribbage Tournament An Intergenerational Success!

Our 2nd Cribbage Tournament was a fun Saturday morning of strategy, competition and many laughs! Our youngest player was 14, while our most experienced players were over 70. The single elimination tournament ended with Joey Sagawa as the grand champion this time!

What is Cribbage?

Cribbage is a card game dating back to the 17th century. The objective of the game is to be the first player to score 121 points using various counting combinations of cards. A peg board is used to keep score. It is a game that has been enjoyed for centuries by those of all ages.

If you missed this tournament, have no fear, we will do it again soon!

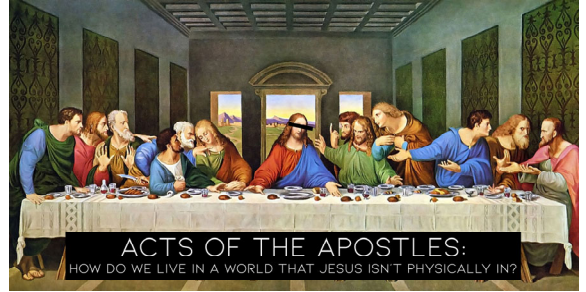

All experience levels are welcome to come and play. Watch for details in late spring. Any questions, reach out to Evan Gratz, director of community life, at evan@pointlomachurch.org.

The preschool needs substitute teachers to help as needed. If you are interested in more information, please contact preschool@pointlomachurch.org.

Check out the preschool's New Kindness Board

Our preschool students are learning about the power of kindness. The classroom teacher read the class stories on being kind and kindness; then they asked the students how they could show kindness to their friends.

The Deacons are happy to announce that the May 1 pancake breakfast is back in business. Yes! It's time to prepare your appetites for a scrumdilumptious breakfast of pancakes with all the trimmings. Proceeds from the May 1 pancake breakfast will benefit a newly formed Young Adult Ministry. The twenty-somethings are meeting and making plans.

Easter Flowers

The Easter Bunny isn't the only one making deliveries on Easter. The Deacons will be delivering flowers to many very special people on Easter Sunday. It will be an all out blitz flower shower!

National Volunteer Week—April 17 – April 23

We all know the phrase, "it takes a village..." Well here at PLCPC, no truer words have been spoken in the Church Office. We have several faithful and dedicated volunteers who help with a variety of tasks including answering phones, greeting visitors, general office work and preparation of mailings for things like the Spire and seasonal postcards. We are so grateful for all the folks who help us out with their time, hands, cheerful voices and smiling faces! If you'd like to join our volunteer brigade, please call the church office.

Palm Sunday — April 10

We'll reflect on the question, where is God calling us to speak out during this Holy Week?

10 am - Noon | Throughout Campus

A morning filled with fun, food, and activities for all ages.

Maundy Thursday — April 14, 6 pm

Join us as we host "Christ in the Passover." This powerful, interactive experience, led by Jews for Jesus, illustrates the link between the Jewish feast of Passover and the last supper Jesus shared with His disciples. Space is limited for this service. Registration is required. Register at pointlomachurch.org/register.

Good Friday—April 15, Noon

Join us in the Chapel for a quiet service of prayer and reflection.

Easter Sunday—April 17

We'll celebrate Easter with a message entitled, Expansive Life. The women at the tomb were open to the expansiveness of the resurrection even as many of the other disciples rejected it at first. Coming Together

The Mission Beyond Committee (MBC) thanks the congregation for your support of the Ukraine people and refugees. This will be a continuing need and fortunately we have joined with the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance team enabling mission partners of the Presbyterian Church (USA) to give witness to the healing love of Christ. To date PLCPC congregation and MBC have donated more than $13,000.

Please keep the Ukrainian refugees and all people who are facing displacement due to war or natural disasters in your prayers.

Support For Refugees

Eight seniors of church member Lisa Munoz's Torah High School of San Diego class are currently traveling in Germany, Poland, and Prague on a Holocaust education trip and humanitarian mission. It was this group of students who decided to collect needed items for the Ukrainian refugees at two Polish camps in Warsaw and Krakow. They collected roughly 30 boxes of donations of new clothing, hygiene products, over-the-counter medications, and sleeping bags to take to Ukrainian refugees. Included in those boxes of donated items are items from our Women's Tuesday Morning Bible Study and many beautiful cards and letters created by our PLCPC children during Kids Worship on March 13. We are so proud of the children's caring hearts and compassion for the Ukrainian people.

Kids Drama and Music Class New Session begins April 7

Registration is now open for our upcoming Kids Drama and Music Class. The 6-week session is held on Thursdays beginning April 7. The class meets from 4-6 pm. Ash Wednesday Dinner on the Turf

It was so very special to celebrate the beginning of the Lenten season with a simple dinner followed by Worship in the Sanctuary. The outdoor Turf Area has proven to be a wonderful spot to join together safely in a beautiful space for fellowship and time together.

We are grateful to the volunteers and staff who put together the delicious meal and meaningful Worship service.

The Ringers ReJOYce! Paused for a selfie during a recent practice as they work on some special musical selections for the Easter worship service.
