A note from Pastor Karla...

What makes summer so special?

Growing up in an area of the country with four seasons, the answer is clearly “the change in weather.” Despite scorching heat and suffocating humidity, summer was the best time of year for most people, because in one’s most recent memory, the chill of the winter storm watch could still be felt. But in San Diego, since the fluctuation in weather is not as dramatic, you would think summer wouldn’t be so special, and yet it is! Summer is just as special here as anywhere. So, if not the weather, then what is the difference? What makes this time of year so much different than other times?

Most certainly, it is the relationships.

During the other seasons of the year, relationships are fostered and they grow, in most cases, more consistently. Many of us go to school or work, to sporting events or to regular bible studies. During these times we have structure and the people we interact with are fairly predictable. And this consistency is important. But most of these consistent meet-ups take a break in the summer months and what is left behind in these spaces that used to fill our calendars? Nothing. A void. Unstructured time--an unusual gift in our world today. And with unstructured time, we have more opportunity for Kairos moments--moments where we see God at work in places and in people we may not have noticed before.

My summer has been filled with all kinds of Kairos moments. Encounters at

CHURCH NEWS

Session Highlights - June 19, 2019 Session Meeting

The PLCPC Session and Board of Deacons held a shared meeting on June 19, 2019 in the Family Life Center. Rev. Karla Shaw provided probing questions on the status of the church, and then elders and deacons met one-on-one in "speed discussions." After about an hour the Deacons departed to continue their meeting in the Library.

The Session then welcomed the Renovation Task Force (RTF), chaired by John Brand, to present their report following 12 months of study. Brand thanked the other members of the RTF: Elder Douglas Buser, Susan Cramer, Will Hage, Bob Holst, Melissa Mullins and Director of Operations & Church Life Jolene Wade, for their participation.

Brand said that during their study the RTF determined that not only a renovation of certain areas of the church was required, but that a long range master plan would clarify the next steps and lead future renovation steps. He introduced Jon Dominy of Domus Studios, the firm the RTF has consulted in the development of the master plan.

Dominy presented a slideshow illustrating a three-phase plan. He noted that the current campus provides unusual challenges with its inward focus and meaningful features holding many cherished memories.

Following the presentation there was an enthusiastic period of questions and answers. The Session directed the RTF to present the plan to the congregation following the July 28 worship service. Then the Session directed the Finance Committee to prepare proposals for the formation of a capital campaign committee.

the pool with people from my hometown. Run-ins with friends at child play spaces at just the right time. Watching one of our own jet ski for the first time at 96 years old! Summer is filled with wonder, mostly because of the space created in our calendars.

Where have you seen God at work this summer? Have you had many Kairos moments?

If you ask God to show you, you may be surprised at what God reveals. Share with someone, will you?

Sharing our lives with one another is what makes summer so special.

Happy Summer!

CHOPPED at Church

Thank You All for Making it Happen!

This thank you starts with Pastor Karla for her support for PLCPC hosting Chopped at Church. The staff helped in every way possible. From the excellent media help, to Evan's support throughout the planning process, and R.O.'s interactive and fun emcee duties!!!

The congregation pulled together a cooking team led by John Brand and competed with Rocky and Lola Springstead. The congregation offered wonderful items for our silent auction, attended the event, purchased silent auction items, and helped us out as volunteers. And not least of all was the awesome group of people who graciously stepped up to form our Chopped Committee: Amy and Ben Adams, Sandy and Larry Brenner, Phillip Hatfield, Meredith Larsen, Ed Lynds, and Jean Murphy. This group of dedicated volunteers always offered their best and always with a smile. It was an honor and pleasure to work with them to produce this event.

Save the Date! Fall Kick-Off

Sunday, September 8

Simultaneous Worship Services 9:00 am in the Sanctuary & Chapel

Followed by our official Kick-Off for all of our ministries

Arts, Crafts, Activities For All!

Thank You for Remembering the Endowment

June was Endowment Month at PLCPC, and your Endowment Committee is grateful for the suggestions, questions, and kind comments. We are especially thankful for the many contributions sent to the Endowment during the month.

The new Endowment Brochure was unveiled during June. Please look for it in the pews, in the church office or online. Additionally, a brief interview about the Endowment (which was shown during the services one Sunday in June) is also now available on our website at pointlomachurch.org/endowment.

We rescheduled the program on giving, "Maximizing Your Church and Minimizing Your Taxes," (our star speaker was under the weather). It is now tentatively planned for September 29—more on that in the fall.

The contributions received during Endowment Month are a reminder of the many ways our church supports the Endowment. Remember the Endowment when you want to:

- Celebrate a special event in your life
- Honor a family member or friend
- Memorialize a family member or friend who has passed away
- Create a lasting legacy in your will or trust

An Endowment gift is a celebration in perpetuity. When there is something special to celebrate or recognize, remember the Endowment!

Prayer Quilt Ministry Celebrates 17 Years Sunday, August 18, 2019

More than 1,858 quilts tied with thousands of prayers

Imagine yourself wrapped in your coziest blanket. Now, imagine that your blanket is filled with prayers. Do you feel it envelop and comfort you, and fill your heart and spirit with hope and peace? Some people say that after receiving their prayer quilt, they have had their best night's sleep in months. Others have shared that when family and friends visit them in the hospital or at home and are invited to tie a prayer into their quilt, that this offers an opening for conversation and deeper sharing. It's an opportunity to express our faith that God is in our midst and at work. Thank you for your prayers and for being part of the Prayer Quilt Ministry.

If you have received a prayer quilt, please bring it to church on Prayer Quilt Sunday—August 18— and drape it over the back of your pew or chair. If you would like to request a prayer quilt, please contact Lynn Spafford at redbrickprayerquilts@gmail.com or call her at 858-292-8461. If you have questions about the ministry or are interested in participating in it, please contact Karen Vandenberg, ktvandenberg@aol.com, or call her at 858-569-6115.

August Book Club!

Pastor Alex and Evan Gratz invite you to join our summer book club. The August book is A Man Called Ove by Fredrik Backman. Get the book, start reading, and join us on Wednesday, Sept. 4 for dinner and discussion. Location: TBD. Register online so we know you are reading with us: Pointlomachurch.org/register

Have You Noticed Anything New Around Campus?

We have been very generously blessed with a wide array of new furniture, desks, office accessories and more! Through a work contact, John Brand made a connection which resulted in numerous desks, chairs, cabinets, white boards and more all to be donated to PLCPC. So while you are here on campus, take notice of the new décor and if you have time, rest and relax at one of the new red table and chair sets currently around our campus. If you attend the Café service in the Chapel, feel free to sip your coffee during the Worship service at one of the new high-top tables and chairs.
