Prayer of Confession

God of Justice, who rearranges the powers that be so the last shall be first and the first shall be last, we come to You in confession, not to dwell in our failings, but because we are already holy because You are holy.

In our holy connection to You, loving God, we get to be completely honest about ourselves, we get the chance to set aside the things that tear us apart. We are set free by your living grace. Let us name all the ways we have fought against the holiness inside of us
And turn back to You, Gracious God. (Silent Prayer) Amen

Affirmation of Grace

Friends prepare your minds for the action God calls us to: the action of holiness and love. We have been set free from the moment we were created in God's image. How are we going to live in that Grace? How are we going to draw the circle of that Grace wider so all can be free? Amen.
